

Local podiatrist discusses workplace foot problems

Dr. Raymond Fritz Jr. of are responsible for main-health. Allentown Family Foot taining a safe work envi-Township, recently ad- forces, the HealthWorks - at the HealthWorks Safe- explore safety and enviberg Education Confer- lems, keep up-to date on tems. ence Center.

nesses and industries who workplace safety and Farrell@lvh.com.

In developing and deliv-Care, South Whitehall ronment for their work- ering programs relevant to area businesses. Healthdressed a major employer SPG meets at quarterly Works focuses on injury concern-the issue of foot breakfast sessions dur- and illness prevention problems in the workplace ing which participants education that will have a positive impact on workty Peer Group meeting ronmental issues, work er protection, as well as held at Lehigh Valley Hos- together to develop solu- help promote safety and pital Network's Muhlen- tions to common prob- health management sysfederal regulations and For more information

An affiliation of indi- share program informa- concerning HealthWorks viduals from local busi- tion that helps improve SPG, contact Maureen.

PRESS PHOTO COURTESY AFFC

Dr. Raymond Fritz Jr. of Allentown Family Foot Care, South Whitehall, recently discussed employer foot problem concerns at the HealthWorks Safety Peer Group.